

The above map shows the intermodal freight network in the region and beyond, including major airports, major seaports, and railyards.