- c. If there's some special feature such as a spring or fossil oysters, see if you can get a subject matter expert (cave diver or geologist) to come along and talk.
- 3. Help prepare outing paddlers:
 - a. If somebody needs a boat, help find a loaner or point them to outfitters: www.wwals.net/blog/water-trails/outfitters/
 - b. Especially if water levels or weather are issues, it's useful to post updates on the outings facebook event and meetup.
 - c. You are responsible for deciding to go to backup or to cancel or postpone an outing due to weather, water levels, etc.

4. For Full Moon paddles:

- a. Refer people who want boats to the eventbrite tickets, which are linked into each full moon outing announcement, and may be found through the outings page: https://wwals.net/outings.
- b. Get the boat keys from Banks Lake Outdoors before the event. Get the keys by 4PM if the paddle is on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, or Saturday, which are days Banks Lake Outdoors is open.
- c. For Sunday, Monday, or Tuesday Full Moon paddles, arrange THE WEEK BEFORE to get the keys. Usually this actually means either Banks Lake

 Outdoors will leave the boats unlocked, or someone from Lanier County will come unlock them.
 - i. Go by Banks Lake Outdoors and talk to them or call them at (229) 569-0147
 - ii. If they don't answer, call Lanier County Code Enforcement at 229-569-1652
 - iii. If they don't answer, call Lanier County EMA at (229) 482-2595
 - iv. If they don't answer, call EMA Director Tony Galardo at 229-482-5070
 - v. If he doesn't answer, call the Lanier County office at (229) 482-2088 and tell them you've tried all the above.
 - vi. Be polite. Lanier County lets WWALS rent those boats for free.
 - vii. Do not wait until Sunday, Monday, or Tuesday to call the above numbers.
- 5. If you discover you can't lead the outing, it is your responsibility to find someone to step forward to lead it and to make sure the Outings Committee knows who. Please do this as early as possible; don't wait until the day before or the day of.