

4.6 Toxics & Manmade Organic Compounds (Continued)

Pollutants of Concern	Basis
Chloroform	This parameter was evaluated in accordance with the procedures provided in 391-3-6.06 of the Georgia Rules and Regulations for Water Quality Control and its instream concentration was found to be less than 50% of the instream water quality standards. Refer to Appendix D of the Fact Sheet for reasonable potential evaluations. In accordance with the EPD reasonable potential procedures for toxics, chloroform is not considered a pollutant of concern and additional monitoring is not required.