

57. Clean Water Act § 505(a), 33 U.S.C. § 1365(a), authorizes any person (including a corporation or association) having an interest which is or may be adversely affected to commence a civil action against the Administrator where there is alleged a failure of the Administrator to perform any act or duty under this chapter which is not discretionary with the Administrator. The same section authorizes the district courts “to order the Administrator to perform” any act or duty under the Clean Water Act which is not discretionary with the Administrator.

58. Clean Water Act § 303(c)(4), 33 U.S.C. § 1313(c)(4), provides:

The Administrator shall promptly prepare and publish proposed regulations setting forth a revised or new water quality standard for the navigable waters involved—

(B) in any case where the Administrator determines that a revised or new standard is necessary to meet the requirements of this chapter.

The Administrator shall promulgate any revised or new standard under this paragraph not later than ninety days after he publishes such proposed standards, unless prior to such promulgation, such State has adopted a revised or new water quality standard which the Administrator determines to be in accordance with this chapter.
