

If Jacksonville's wastewater is treated so well it can be piped into the Suwannee River Basin,

- How about instead pipe that water into Jacksonville's drinking water?
- If people don't want to drink it, how about use it for golf courses, datacenters, and other industrial uses in their own basin?