

Water First North Florida

- 1.1 billion dollar (not including land acquisition) project in planning phase
- 40 million gallons per day (MGD) of treated wastewater from JEA will be routed through wetland treatment systems and into the aquifer in the Santa Fe basin
- Project is anticipated to provide sufficient recharge to offset the impacts of current and projected 2045 water use
- Target completion by 2040

