Suwannee RIVERKEEPER
Songwriting Contest

Amy Sharma, PhD, Executive Director of Science for Georgia, will explain effects of hyper-scale datacenters on local waterways, groundwater, and communities, plus larger effects through cooling water for more power plants.

Rick Davis, Madison County, Florida, Commissioner District 5, and Chair of the Task Force of the dozen downstream Florida counties, will tell us why the Task Force opposes Water First North Florida (WFNF), the project to pipe treated wastewater from Jacksonville into the Suwannee Basin.
